Fetal assessment clinic gains local support

SAINT JOHN • Women's health care will be getting a boost at the Saint John Regional Hospital Friday. The Saint John and Quispamsis Shoppers Drug Mart locations will be partnering in a fundraising effort to support the hospital's maternal fetal assessment clinic.

Funds are being raised through Shoppers Drug Mart's annual Grow Women's Health initiative, which has raised more than $26 million since 2002, the company said Thursday in a press release. The proceeds support women's health-care, mental health programs.

A reception, to be held Friday at the regional hospital's light court at 10 a.m., will include a tour of the hospitals' fetal assessment clinic. Speakers will include: Dr. Frank Sanderson, head of the department of obstetrics and gynecology, and Tony Leblanc, the associate owner of the Shoppers

Drug Mart on Crown Street in Saint John.

Pirate-themed walk-a-thon fundraiser set for Saturday

SAINT JOHN • A walk-a-thon fundraiser and barbecue for seniors will be held at Kennebec Manor, 475 Woodward Ave., Saint John on Saturday to raise funds for new furniture for our lobby/common area. The one-kilometre walk begins at the front of the building and proceeds to Brentwood Crescent at 11:30 a.m. The theme for the fundraiser is Pirates of the Caribbean.
